Class History

On a warm September day in 1947 we, the famous class of 1960, graced the elementary school with our presence. They received us with open arms. Fools!! (Little did they know what was in store for them.)

After we had learned to read and write, we, the class of all classes, selected a fitting motto:

"We are smart; we are thrifty;
We're the class of 1960."

We spent six delightful years in elementary school and then the big day came -- we had reached High School. Miss Newman and Mr. Lyon were our advisors and we sponsored many successful dances and food sales under their guidance. As the old saying goes, "Time flies." Before we knew it, we were Juniors and had received our class rings. We put on a spaghetti supper which was a huge success. (We downed enough spaghetti to feed an Italian army.) The Junior-Senior Prom, "A Night by the Sea," came in May and was enjoyed by everyone.

At last we were Seniors. The senior play, "Seven Keys to Baldpate," was the "living end." Our trip to the Cornell-Columbia football game proved very interesting and we all had a "blast." Toward the end of the year we looked forward to "heckling" the Juniors on Class Night.

Now Commencement was here and our school days at St. J. H. S. had ended. Many times in the years to come our thoughts will recall the hard times and the happy times and those considerate teachers who guided us over those formative years.

Dear Pam,
I've have had more fun from January 22, until now than I have ever had. I hope you won't forget me after July 5, but I want you to have fun while I'm gone but don't forget I'll be home in November. I hope you have had as much fun with me as I have had with you, I'll never forget them and I'll never forget you. Be good while I'm gone. I'll miss seeing you every morning on the truck. Don't forget to write. Lots of Love Always

Pam

Well if we're lucky we might be Juniors next year, but as I'm having so much trouble with Ted in L.H. I just might be a Soph again.

We had our share of trouble this year like when the cops caught me behind the Mas. Temple and then there was the trouble we had over a certain girls birthday party.

We've really had our share of birthday parties this but yours and mine are the best so far.

You and Wayne keep towing the line??? cause you & that jerk make a pretty good couple considering

Tina

Best Pam of luck to a real swell girl and be good to Wayne he's a real nice guy. Skip
